Collage

with Kay Duffy Learn new techniques and approaches

Working with Kay, you will texture lovely Asian papers with watercolors using a special mono-print technique. These beautiful papers are then torn or cut and glued in abstract or impressionistic patterns. ("collage" means glue in French). Add your own meaningful clippings, words, or other "stuff" to your painting. Enhance and pull together your work with other water media, crayons, acrylic, etc. CREATE UNIQUE, PERSONAL WORKS OF ART and HAVE FUN.

Date: Saturday, September 18, 2010

Time: 9:30 am – 3:30 pm

Place: Crafts Area. Follow the signs, past the picnic area to under the building.

Fee: $50 includes a sample pack of papers and most of the supplies necessary for the workshop. (If you have previously taken the class you can continue work on your projects with Kay's assistance for a fee of $40) Additional papers can be purchased as needed.

Registration: Your check is your reservation - class size is limited.

Send to Kay Duffy, 20637 Leonard Road, Saratoga 95070.

Please include an e-mail address. You will be sent confirmation and an information sheet.

Information: Call Kay 408 867-0508 or email

K@kayduffywatercolors.com

Kay has recently been awarded 2 honorable mentions for collage pieces. You can see these paintings at her virtual gallery at www.kayduffywatercolors.com.
